

When You Call

Written by Tracy Howe, registered with ccli

Tune the B+E strings to A+D

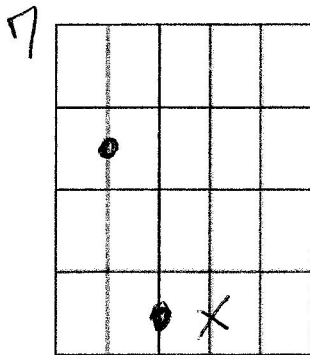

When you call, call to me
I am waiting to hide you in my arms
When you cry, cry to me
Oh child, I have not turned away

When you run, run to me
Fear cannot find you when I hide you in my arms
When they come with their guns
Oh child, I'll be with you 'till the end

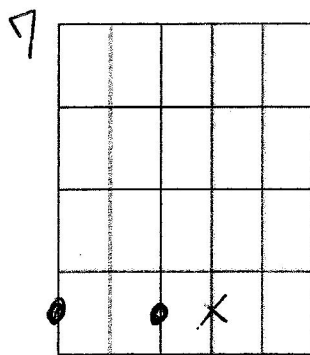

Though the world does not see you
And men have their way with you
Sweet mercy flows from me
Sweet mercy flows

throughout

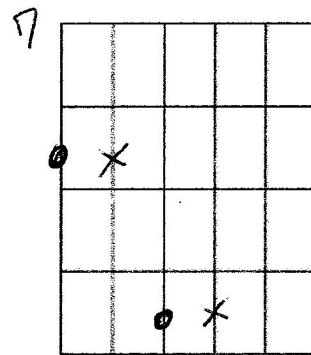

And I will rise
I will rise for you
I will rise
I will rise
